WEEKLY ARIZON.

Tucson, A. T., Saturday, December 11, 1869.

No 48

WEEKLY ARIZONAN ir Journal, devot ed to th sis of Arizona Territory.

every paterday at Tuesca, A.T.

DOGNER .....EDITOR.

Terms of Subscription, one year ..... $7,00 three months..... 2.00 bers, each ...... 25

Advertising Rates.

hes per square for the first insertion diar for each subsequent insertion respletters must be addressed to the and an "correspondence" to the

J. E. MCCAFFEREE.

OY AND COUNSELOR AT LAW

TESUS, A. L

C. H. OFRI, erney and Counselor at Lav

les in Court-house Building TUCSON, A. T.

AND ARREST PRINCIPLE NO. 10.

Tuckon, A. T.

E on the Plaza, opposite the Catholic Church.

F. M. HODGES,

TUCSON, A. T.

S constantly on houd a large supply brand of Liquors and Cigars.

W. W. WILLIAM

LORD A BURLLEADIN.

brought on from New York

SPOCK OF MERCHANDISE. the same very cheap for each. k at our goods and prices. Jan. 1 , 69.

LUNCHES

s, Schwitzer Cheese, Holland Herrings l'etato Sa ad. Pickies, etc., etc.

ING. HARR CUPTING AND SHAMPOOING

the after the most approved styles. SAML. BOSTICK

ROUNTREE,

Forwarding and Commerchant GUAYMAS, SONORA, MEXICO.

dar attention paid to receiving and forgrous with quick disputch. Respectfully.

& WILLIAMS, E. N. FISH & Co. VINASANDERS, HON, J. B. ALLEN T. HAYDENS TULLY & OCHOA.

OFFICIAL.

CONVENTION

THE UNITED STATES AND BREMEN.

ADDITIONAL ARTICLES

Agreed upon between the Post-Office Department of the United States and the Fost-Office Department of the Hunseatic Republic o Bromen, modifying Article II. of the Postal Convention of August 4, 1853.

The int runtional correspondence, conveyed either by United States or Bremen steamers, between the United States or its Territories and onsmust be puid invariably inadvance Bremen, will be he realter subject to the following postage charges, viz.:-Postage on each letter or anchet not exceeding above hill an ourse, and not over one curce, ......20 certs. Above one o mue, but not exceeding one ounce Above one nance and a half, but not exceeding

And the postage will increase in this scale of progression, to war additional ten cents for each additional had-ounce, or fraction of half-

Payment in advance shall be optional in either country. It shall not, however be peraccount shall be taken of the prepayment of served. any fraction of that ra'e.

In witness whereo', we have hereto set our names and affixed the seals of our respective others, this twenty-third day of August, one th usuad eight hundred and sixty, at the city o Washington.

[SEAL.]

Postmaster-general. R. SCHLEIDEN, Minister Resident of Bremen.

J. HOLT.

ADDITIONAL ARTICLES

and ruly make use of weignes, having the countries beyond it, or for foreign countries the mail to and from Bromen and Barre. Asserted ounce for unit, with its division into beyond the country to which the mail is Aur. X. This arrangement is to go into ofself and querier ounces; and the Bremen sect. Fo t-Office, in charging the postage due to the American.)

This additional article to the postal conven-

In witness whereof, we have hereto set our names and affixed the seals of our respective than three ounces each, mailed in the United offices, to stwenty-third day of November, one theora deight hundred and sixty, at the city

SEAL. J. HOLT, Postmaster-General R. SCHLEIDEN.

ADDITIONAL ARTICLES

Minister Resident of Bremen.

Agreed upon between the Post-Office Department of the United States and the Post-Office De-ing war the internament correspondence be- countries. Said newspapers, pamphlets, and fla , surject total the stipulations, rules, and postage when containing written matter, or for regulations command in the several postal con- any other cause specified in said laws and reguventions heretofore concluded between both fations. They must be sent in narrow bands, in witness whereof we have hereto set our names and stilling the seals of our respective States and Hamburg Post-Offices shall reciprooffices, this twenty-eighth day of March, one cally account to each other upon letters which thousand eight handred and sixty-four, at the shall be excharged between them shall be escity of Washington.

SEAL.

Postmaster-General. R. SCHLEIDEN, Minister Resident of Bremen.

POSTAL CONVENTION

THE UNITED STATES AND HAMBURG.

The undersigned being duly nurhorized for United States, when conveyed under that purpose, have agreed upon the following Article II., by United States steamer ... 9 cents. of mails between the United mailes and the Manseatic Republic of Hamourg, to wit a shad be the United Sinter office of exchange, and Hamburg the office of exchange of that to the Hamburg office, for each un-Republic, for all mails transmitted inder this paid I ster weighing half an ounce, or

Asr. II. The international correspondence, destined for the United States, as well conveyed either by United States or by ham- as for each letter of like weight pres burg steamers, as hereinafter stated, between paid in the United States and destined burg, will be subject to the following postage | Article II., by United States Steamer ... I cent. charges, viz :-

Postage on each letter or packet not ex-of progression, to wit: Additional twenty conts steamers, and one half to the United States, for each additional ounce or franction of an and theother half to the Hamburg office, when Payment in advance shall be optioned in Letter bills and acknowledgments, as well as eitler country. It shall not, however, be pers forms of accountshall be made to conform to mitted to pay less than the whole rate; and no these articles any fraction of that rate.

man Austrian Pos al Union, respectively, are statements and accounts prepared by the Gento have the advantage of the rate of ten cents wal Post-Office in Washington; and having established by the praceding article, (second.) been examined, compared, and settled by the whenever their postage to and from Hamburg, Post-Office of Hamburg, the balance shall be for letters to and from the United States, shall paid, without delay, by that department which be reduced to the uniform rate of five cents or shall be found indebted to the other. If the balless On all correspondence for or from such ance is in favor of Hamberg, it shall be paid of said states as shall not so reduce their rates, over by the United States at Hamburg; and if the charge between the United States and in favor of the United States, it shall be usid Hamburg, by either of the two lines, will be fif- over by Hamburg at Washington, or to the teen cents the single rate.

sive scale, etc., upon the same principles of the United States shall direct. Neither office mused to pay less than the whole rate; and no as in article IL, shall be admitted and ob- is to charge to the other any commissions upon

ART. IV. On all letters originating and post and mailed to, and deliverable in, Hambury, shall be required to convey all dead and re-Hamburg, and mailed to, and deliverable in, of the respective Post Departments of the the United States or its Territories, the foreign United States and Hamburg, tree of charge. than that of the United S ates,) is to be added carrying the mail between New York and Hamwith lists stating the foreign countries, or places places between New York and Beamen, and Agreed apon between the Post-Office Department in foreign countries, to which the foreign post between New York and Havre; and also of of the United states and the Post-Office Dr. tage, and the amount thereof, must be absolute the Bremen mail stemmships niving between partment of the Bansestic Republic of Bremen. Tely prepaid, or must be left unpaid. And until New York and Bremen; and shall as near at The Post-Cilice of New York, in charging such lists are duly furnished, neither country is practicable, alternate at regular intervals with postage due to the Post-Office of Bremen, shall to mail to the other any letter from toreign he days of saling of the steamers conveying orrespondence for or from countries have cally the same as the rates charged via Bremen, Hamburg cease running tion of August 4, 1853, takes effect immediate- under the United States and Bremen postal | Done in duplicate and signed in Washington

ART. V. Newspapers, not weighing more hundred and fifty-seven. States and destined to Hamburg, or mailed in Hamburg and destined for the United States, may be sent by the United States and Hamburg steamers, when the whole postage of two cents is prepaid thereon at the mailing office. and newspapers of like weight, done up singly may be sent to any part of the German Postal Union, via Hamburg, or prepayment of three cents each at the office of mairing in the United States, which shall be in full of the postage to destination; the German postage beyond Hampastment of the Han-cause Republic of Bremen, burg to be one cent each in addition to the two providing for the Conveyance of the International cents chargeable to Hamburg. The postage on Correspondence in time of War or threatening pamphlets and magazines per onnes, or a fruction of an ounce, shall be one cent, prepayment Whenever in consequence of War or threaten- of which shall likewise be required in both open at the sides or ends.

Agr. VI. The postage for which the United of progression determined by preceding second and third articles, as tollows, viz: The Hamburg office shall pay to the United States office. for each unpaid letter, weighing half an ounce, or less, originating in the United States and destined for Hamburg, as well as for each letter of like weight prepaid in Hamburg and destined for the art.cles, providing for the reciprocal exchange And when by Hamburg steamer ...... 5 cents. When conveyed under Article III.,

ARTIGIA I The post-thee of New York And when by Hamburg steamer ..... 5 cents. the United States office shall pay less, originating in Hamburg and the United States or its Territories, and Ham - for Hamburg, when conveyed under And when by Hamburg steamer ...... 5 cents. When conveyed, under Article III.

ounce,...... 20 cents | Respecting the postage for new-paper , pam-Above one ounce, but not exceeding two phlets, and magazines received in either coun-And the postage will increase in this scale wince when the same are sent by United States sent by Hamburg stenmers

Letter bills and acknowledgments, as well as account shall be taken of the prejayment of ART. VII. The accounts between the two de partnents shall be closed at the expiration of ART. III. All the states belonging to the Ger- each quarter of the calendar year, by quarterly General Post-Gib e at London, to the credit of And optional prepayment, a regular progress the United States, as the Postmaster-General Postage it may collect.

Agr. VIII The steamers of either governed in other countries beyond the United States, ment plying between New York and Hamburg or originating and posted in countries beyond turned letters, and the official communications postage, (other than that of Hamburg, and other | Aur. IX. The sailing days of the steamers to the postage stated in Article II. or III., as the purgunder this arrangement shall be so are case may be. And the two Post Office De- ranged as not to conflict with the schedule days partments are mutually to furnish each other of saling of the United States mail steamer; feet on the first day of July 1857, and is to be It is further understood and agreed that no continued in torce until annualed by mutual on with or us wither Fost Dennerment, wher weights having the German loth for unit, (two Hamburg shall be exchanged under this ac- the expiration of three months previous notice loth being considered equal to one ounce rangement, unless the rates of postage to and to the other; and it may cesse whenever all from such countries, via Hamburg, are identi- the direct steamers between New York and on the twelfth day of June, one thousand eight

HORATIO KING PERDINAND KARCK,

Commissioners for the Hansentic Republic of Hamburg. AARON V. BROWN, P. M. G. U. S.

This convention is ratified with the advice and conselt of the Senate of Hamburg. C. H. MERCK, L. L. D., Member of the Senate and President #### of the Post-Office Department. ADDITIONAL ARTICLES

Agreed upon between the Post-Office Department Of the United States and the Post-Office Department of the Hanscatic Republic of Hamburg, modifying Article II, of the Postal Convention of June 12, 1857.

The international correspondence conveyed iw en the United States and Bremen cannot be imagazines are to be subject to the laws and either by the United States or by Hamburg c avered by United States or Bonnen steamers, regulations of each country, respectively, in re- steamers, between the United States or its Tor-PIONEER BREWERY AND AGENOY it may be conveyed by Steamer under neutral gard to their liability to be rated with letter ritories and Hamburg, will hereafter be subect to the following postage charges, viz:-

l'ostage on each letter or packet not exceed -Above half an ounce, and not over one ounce......29 Above one ounce, but not exceeding Above one cance and a haf, but not

And the postage will increase in this scale of progression, to wit; Additional ten cents for each additional half-ounce, or fraction of halfounce.

Payment in advance shall be optional in either country. I shall not however, be permitted to pay less than the whole rate; and no account shall be taken of the prepayment of any fraction of that rate. This additional article takes the place of article second of the postal convention of the 12th of June, 1857, which in all other respects remains in force. In witness whereof, we have hereto set our names and affixed the scale of our respective offices, this twenty-third day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, at the city of Washington.

[SRAL.] J. HOLT, Postmaster-General. H. R. KUNHARDS, Actin Consultor the Republic